Be an advocate for access to local foods in your community.

The Camas Farmer's Market is an agriculturally based market. All vendors are either farmers selling locally grown fruits and vegetables, and locally raised meats and eggs, or local producers selling locally prepared foods like bakery items, nuts and hot foods. Our market serves the community of Camas, as well as East Vancouver, Washougal and other East County communities. Average weekly visitors increased over 15% in 2010 to an average of nearly 1,000 visitors each week. We expect similar growth for the 2011 season.

“The market is a not only a vibrant way to shop for locally produced and grown food, it is also a community gathering place. Quickly it is becoming THE place to be in town. The market also hosts great events. I love seeing the kids in the market, and taking my daughters so they really knows where food comes from.” - Meredith Distante, N.D. Blossom Natural Health and Wellness

“The Camas Farmers' Market is amazing! What variety! Only 20 vendors, and I can buy all my meat, eggs, bread, fruit, and vegetables for the week. The people in charge of the market are passionate about helping local growers. When I shop at the farmers' market, I know my food is being grown in an environmentally friendly manner, my money is staying in the local economy, and I always see friends and family there. What a great way to build community!” - Geoff Walker, MA, RC, HP
